Ballroom Dance Club Membership Form

MEMBER RESPONSIBILITY

Our club relies on membership, as well as attendance for the financial success of the BDC. Membership fees help the club with overhead expenses such as Liability Insurance, Hall Rental, Bands and general operating expenses; however, this cannot support the full annual costs. We not only encourage membership, but dance attendance regardless which band or venue is playing for the financial success of the club.

DRESS CODE

The BDC does have a Dress Code so please come dressed for a lovely evening. Acceptable attire is Semi-Formal to Formal. We ask that you leave the Mini-Skirts, Jeans, Tank Tops, Shorts and Tennis Shoes at home for another occasion. Please remember when inviting friends to join you for the evening they are informed of our Dress Code.

DANCE ETIQUETTE IN THE BALLROOM

Most instructors focus on teaching patterns and technique to beginning dancers; however, sometimes we forget the do's and don'ts of social dancing. Dance etiquette has developed over time to allow freedom of movement and expression while comfortably sharing a relatively limited dance floor area. Common sense and common courtesy are in many ways related to safety on the dance floor as dancers often move very quickly and not always with the greatest degree of control. Therefore, just as with driving an automobile, it is necessary for dancers to follow the "Rules of the Road". Doing this will greatly enhance your social graces and shows great respect for the dance. With a little bit of practice, you will become the sophisticated dancer that everyone will admire.

So please read these etiquette rules carefully and try to keep them in mind the next time you go dancing.

- Remember always to dance in line of dance (counterclockwise) when on the dance floor.
- If you are dancing slowly or covering less room in your steps than others, dance to the center and allow those moving faster to use the outside of the floor. i.e. East Coast Swing in the center, Foxtrot to the outside.
- If you wish to stop and talk, leave the dance floor. Do not stop and visit with either your partner or other friends on the dance floor. This is inconsiderate and potentially dangerous.
- Do not walk across the dance floor to get to the other side, use the outside edges, as well as, Do Not carry food or drink across the dance floor, go around the outside edges to get to your destination.
- Respect the rights of others to move freely onto and off the dance floor. Do not stop and block the entrance to the floor. Move away from the floor to look for your next partner or to visit with the previous one.
- Gentlemen, when you ask a lady to dance and escort her onto the floor, return her to her seat when the dance is over.
- If you must decline an invitation to dance, do so politely. Remember that you may end up sitting out a lot of dances if you say "no" too often. You may not recall the time you turned someone down, but chances are they do.
- If you do accept and your partner is disappointing, most dances last only a few minutes, so smile and be polite. If it was a really unpleasant experience, be politely unavailable next time that person asks for a dance.
